

Danya Buonastella is a Dora nominated actor and graduate of École Philippe Gaulier (Paris, France) and of the Humber Theatre Performances Program (Toronto). She is a writer, theatre creator, and actor for both film and television. She is one of the core members of DopoLavoro Teatrale (DLT), and has worked with many of Canada's leading theatre institutions.

She is currently co-creating a TV series based on The Nonna Monologues and performer in DLT's newest initiative: Theatre On-Call. She is the mother of a very busy toddler and is just trying to take things one day at a time.

Highlights Include: The Stranger (National and International Tour, DLT), Death Married My Daughter (National Tour, Theatre Smith-Gilmour), OFF LIMITS ZONE (DLT, Luminato), If on a Christmas Night (DLT, Dora Nominated – Outstanding Performance of an Ensemble), The Nonna Monologues (DLT, Villa Charities).